THE AUDITORIUM.

Two comedy sketches and a very preity toe dancer will make up the vaudeville part of the programme at this popular playhouse for the first half of the coming week, while three reals of the Independent Motion Picture company will do their share in making the motion picture part of the programme interesting. This last mentioned film will be shown on Wednesday and Thursday, June 28th and 29th, only and is another picture something on the line of the famous Fall of Troy reel which was shown here with such pronounced success last week. Grenader Roland is a photopiay depicting the big battle at Moscow in which the great general Napoleon took part, and mass over 2,000 people in the cast, making probably the best and most interesting battle scene that has ever been reproduced in motion picture photography. It cost about $20,000 to take and the critics claim that it even sur-

DISFIGURED WITH ECZEMA

"Our little boy Gilbert was troubled with ecrema when but a few weeks old. His little face was covered with sores even to back of his ears. The poor little fellow suffered very much. The sores began as pimples, his little face was disfigured very much. We hardly knew what he looked like. The face looked like raw ment. We tied that he had been a state of the face looked like raw ment. We tied that he had been so cloth over his hands to prevent him from scratching. He was very realess at night, his little face itched. We consulted two doctors at Chicago, where we resided at that time. After trying all the medicine of the two doctors without any result, we read of the Cuticura Remedies, and at once bought the Cuticura Remedies, and at once bought the Cuticura Remedies, and promptly we saw the result, and after four weeks, the dear child's face was as fine and clean as any little baby's face. Every one who saw Gilbert after using the Cuticura Remedies-was surprised. He has a head of hair which is a pride for any boy of his age, three years. We can only recommend the Cuticura Remedies to everybody." (Signed) Mrs. H. Albrechi, Box 863, West Point, Neb., Oct. 20, 1910. #### TO ONE I KNEW.

Three years have burned to ashes since Ashes of roses, for their perfume clings !

To memory—and still around me wings

The half-forgotten song I'll ne'er for-The burden of the word is sweet and No triver than the songs that still shall be: Each year a rose to bloom and burn for me-Your hand in mine with lovely intent More beautiful to me are today Than in that hour a thousand days mgo When, lifting wearily, these eyes met For I have learned from you that love endures; Your hand has stirred the waning fires And set life's jeweled censers all
